

It Was More Than We Expected ...

After learning they were having a baby, Jeff and Kim Banks wanted to make it a family affair and include 10-year-old Matthew from the beginning.

When the big day came, HRMC was there to make the family experience memorable – from a “big brother” wristband at registration to a spacious delivery suite and personal attention for each of the family member’s needs.

“It was more than we expected it to be!” – Jeff and Kim

Let us exceed your expectations.
